COMPASSION
CHURCH
JESUS, HOPE, AND LOVE FOR ALL

Hello Compassion,

I pray these beginning three months are filled with ample time for rest, productivity, and growth in your walk with Christ. Our focus for the year as a Church comes from Ephesians 4:1-16 and is focused on coming into alignment with who God is calling us to become. Both as His church as well as individually. I know without a doubt that all of us are gifted with many passions and dreams which come from the Lord. My hope as a pastor and our focus as leaders is to serve all of you by encouraging and equipping you with what is needed to be the bold women and men of God you are called to be. I hope that you are able to believe this for yourself and see good things for 2022. I know I do! I see a church that is vibrant and all of us seeking the Lord and obeying fully who God has called us to be. I see leaders and giftings rising to the surface and people stepping out in faith becoming who they are destined to be. I see authenticity, joy, and unity of vision. I see broken people made whole, the lost found, the passionate raised up and released into their own ministry, and more! We are already here in many regards but 2022 is going to be a year of pressing in even further. I ask that you join us in that endeavor. In this guide you will see opportunities to grow in discipleship as well as places to serve in our church. You are invited to be part of the transformation God longs to do. We want you, need you, and invite you to be part of what God is doing at Compassion.

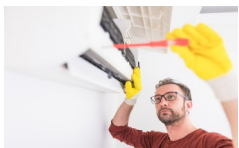

For His Kingdom on Earth as it is in Heaven, Pastor Noah

Stewardship

This year we are focusing on a target goal for Compassion stewardship. Through much prayer and strategizing, we know God is positioning us to accomplish big things the year including maintaining our current ministry and facility.

To achieve what we know God wants to do, our Elders and entire team are trusting God for $360K in giving for the year at Compassion. We know God is able through our generosity and obedience in giving. Thank you for investing in our vision to bring Jesus, Hope, and Love for All!

Compassion Values

- The Holy Spirit will lead us.
- Diversity is a gift from God.
- Be faithful in the basics of prayer, scripture, and serving others.
- We'll do whatever it takes.
- We make wrong things right.
- Everyone has a purpose; everyone has a role.
